

3. What are the charter parties ? What are its kinds and usual clauses ?
4. What are the rights and responsibilities of Railways as carrier ?
5. Analyse the extent of liability of a carrier by Air as regards passengers, luggage or goods.
6. What is meant by general and special damages ? Explain the criteria for determination of damages.
7. Explain the various losses incurred by injured that may form the ground for determining compensation under Motor Vehicles Act.
8. Examine the scope of 'No fault liability' arising out of the use of a motor vehicle.
9. Write short notes on any THREE of the following :
 - (a) Contract of affreightment.
 - (b) Volunti non fit injuria.
 - (c) Air Consignment note.
 - (d) Just Compensation.

Register Number :

Name of the Candidate :

5 3 1 4

B.A.L. DEGREE EXAMINATION, 2008

(FIRST YEAR)

(PAPER - V)

150. LAW RELATING TO CARRIERS
AND MOTOR ACCIDENT CLAIMS

December]

[Time : 3 Hours

Maximum : 100 Marks

Answer any SIX questions.

All questions carry equal marks.

1. "The duties of a common carrier in India are governed by the English Common Law as modified by and in conjunction with the provisions of Indian Carriers Act, 1855" - Discuss.
2. Describe the rules relating to notice of claim for loss of damage of goods carried by railway.

Turn over