- 3. What are the charter parties? What are its kinds and usual clauses?
- 4. What are the rights and responsibilities of Railways as carrier?
- 5. Analyse the extent of liability of a carrier by Air as regards passengers, luggage or goods.
- 6. What is meant by general and special damages? Explain the criteria for determination of damages.
- 7. Explain the various losses incurred by injured that may form the ground for determining compensation under Motor Vehicles Act.
- 8. Examine the scope of 'No fault liability' arising out of the use of a motor vehicle.
- 9. Write short notes on any THREE of the following:
 - Contract of affreightment.
 - (b) Volunti non fit injuria.
 - Air Consignment note.
 - Just Compensation.

Register Number:

Name of the Candidate:

5 3 1 4

B.A.L. DEGREE EXAMINATION, 2008

(FIRST YEAR)

(PAPER - V)

150. LAW RELATING TO CARRIERS AND MOTOR ACCIDENT CLAIMS

[Time: 3 Hours December 1

Maximum: 100 Marks

Answer any SIX questions. All questions carry equal marks.

- "The duties of a common carrier in India are governed by the English Common Law as modified by and in conjunction with the provisions of Indian Carriers Act, 1855" -Discuss.
- 2. Describe the rules relating to notice of claim for loss of damage of goods carried by railway.

Turn over