

SF-7453

Seat No.

Second Year B. A. (English) Examination March/April - 2006 Functional English: Paper - III (Phonetics)

Time: 2 Hours] [Total Marks: 75]

Instruction: Attempt all questions.

What is phonology? How does phonetics and phonology differ?

OR

- 1 Discuss the rules of connected speech with examples.
- What are allophones? Discuss in detail the allophones of the/k/ and /g/.

OR

- 2 Discuss intonations and its types and uses with appropriate illustrations.
- 3 Explain with examples assimilation and 'elision' showing their types.

OR

- 3 Explain 'Word Stress' and any five of its rules.
- 4 Mark the primary and secondary accent in the following: 10
 - (a) oscillating

(b) examination

(c) innocence

(d) beautiful

(e) phonetics

(f) transcendental

(g) artificial

(h) membership

(i) merriment

(j) precision

SF-7453] 1 [Contd...

- 5 (a) Mark the Tonic and Non-tonic accent in the following 5 words:
 - (i) I would come back if I were alive.
 - (ii) Are you coming for the party?
 - (iii) Phonetics is an interesting subject.
 - (iv) When you arrange party. Don't forget to take permission.
 - (v) All very best.
 - (b) Transcribe the following sentences:

10

- (i) Human life is a rainbow of emotions
- (ii) Humor and laughter benefit health
- (iii) Smiling is a mild form of laughing
- (iv) Not only rich but poor people can afford it.
- (v) She complained about her loneliness.

SF-7453] 2 [100]