

Roll Number:

Thapar University Patiala
LMT School of Management

Course: MBA (Energy)

Semester: IInd Semester MST

Month year: March, 2009

Time: 2 hrs. MM: 20

Subject Code: SB 547

Subject Name: Power Sector Reforms

Name of Faculty: A.K.Dhingra

Note: Answer any four questions.

Each questions carries equal marks (5marks)

1. What has been the general mindset that is largely responsible for the present state of affairs in the power sector? What will you do to put this sector back on track Explain briefly?
2. Write a note on the typical technical and non-technical losses in electricity sector and what will you do in order to reduce such losses?
3. What has been the experience of power sector reforms so far and how do you think that the reforms can be made sustainable?
4. Briefly explain the Central Generating Utilities and the major private utilities operating in India.
5. Why was Electricity Act 2003 needed and what it aims to achieve.
6. What will be the impact of Electricity Act 2003 on generation, transmission and distribution sectors?