Paper 2 – PLANNING SESSION

(One hour)

Maximum Marks: 5

This sheet is one part of the Question Paper containing two Questions. It gives you instructions regarding planning your work. Candidates are required to attempt any one question.

The other part of the Question Paper will be handed over to you during the Examination Session.

Candidates need to plan a complete menu during the Planning Session. Any two dishes from the planned menu (showing different methods of cooking) have to be cooked during the Examination Session.

Candidates would need to display their dishes prepared with a suitable setting during the Examination Session.

Candidates would also need to prepare a flower/floor decoration during the Examination Session.

Attempt any one of the following questions:

[5]

Question 1.

- (a) Plan a packed lunch for an adolescent girl going on a train journey.
- (b) Display the dishes prepared.
- (c) Prepare a suitable rangoli / flower arrangement for a festival.

OR

Question 2.

- (a) Plan a meal for your Parents' Silver Wedding Anniversary dinner party.
- (b) Display the dishes prepared with a suitable table setting.
- (c) Prepare a floor decoration / flower arrangement to complement the dishes prepared.

Food tables and recipe books may be used both in the Planning Session and the Examination Session, but frequent reference to them must be avoided during the Examination Session.

This Paper consists of 2 printed pages.

Turn over

Make a carbon copy of the planning work.

- (i) Write down the dishes that you decide to make (try to choose familiar but interesting dishes which would give you scope to show your skills).
- (ii) Beside the dishes chosen, also indicate the quantities of the main ingredients required (a full recipe is not necessary).
- (iii) On a separate sheet, make a list of ingredients along with the total quantity of each item required. Remember to use carbon paper again.
- (iv) Complete the plan of work to show the order of working, the methods to be used, and the length of time required for cooking. Frozen, tinned and packaged foods (i.e. convenience foods) may be used with discretion, but enough work must be planned to show your skill.

Write your NAME and the INDEX NUMBER on your plan and list. Submit the plan and list along with rough notes, if any, you may have made to the Supervising Examiner. You are not allowed to take away the copy of your plan, list and any notes (other than your recipe books). You should not bring fresh notes for the Examination Session.

The original and the copy of the plan and list will be returned to you by the Examiner at the beginning of the Examination Session. You will be expected to keep to your plan.

At the end of the examination, the original plan and list are to be handed over to the Examiner.

You may retain your copy of the plan and list.
