

public sectors. Unfortunately, management has a peculiar tendency to sleep over even the genuine demands of workers. Only when the normal life in the factories or in the organizations is substantially disrupted by workers' strikes with consequent colossal loss of production that management wakes up from its deep slumber to take necessary remedial measures.

1) Read the meanings given below. Now find one word from the passage to replace the description. (1×3=3)

- i) a sign that shows a serious problem exists.
- ii) something that is very huge, immense or of large scale.
- iii) a peaceful and comfortable sleep.

2) Use each of the following words from the passage in sentences of your own. (1×2=2)

- i) insensitivity
- ii) genuine.

C) You are an active member of a forum for clean campus. Prepare one slogan each for the following asking students to :

- i) avoid throwing waste in the campus.
- ii) keep classrooms clean. (2½×2=5)

OR

You have been asked to create captions to educate youngsters on the health hazards of drug addiction. Write two captions to motivate them to avoid drug abuse.

(2½×2=5)

C) Answer any 3 questions in not more than two pages :

(10×3=30)

- 1) In the light of the essays 'Is Love an Art' ? and "Love vs Arranged: Pyar Kiya to Darna Kya", comment on how to find the right person to love and how to make the marriage successful.
- 2) What informal lesson did Sudha Murthy learn from the Thandappa ? How did she learn it ?
- 3) How does Jacobs bring out the horrors of slavery in "The Lover" ?
- 4) What differences do you see in the two discoveries of "Africa" and "America" as depicted by Maya Angelou ?

i lost
paper